

Privacy Policy

Below is the Adviser's Privacy Policy regarding client personal information.

The Adviser:

- a) Collects non-public personal information about its clients from the following sources:
  - Information received from clients on applications or other forms;
  - Information about clients' transactions with the Adviser, its affiliates, and others;
  - Information received from our correspondent clearing broker with respect to client accounts;
  - Medical information submitted as part of an insurance application for a traditional life or variable life policy; and
  - Information received from service bureaus or other third parties.
- b) The Adviser will not share such information with any affiliated or nonaffiliated third party except:
  - When necessary to complete a transaction in a customer account, such as with the clearing firm or account custodians;
  - When required to maintain or service a customer account;
  - To resolve customer disputes or inquiries;
  - With persons acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity on behalf of the customer;
  - With rating agencies, persons assessing compliance with industry standards, or to the attorneys, accountants, and auditors of the firm;
  - In connection with a sale or merger of the Adviser's business;
  - To protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud, identity theft, unauthorized transactions, claims, or other liability;
  - To comply with federal, state, or local laws, rules, and other applicable legal requirements;
  - In connection with a written agreement to provide investment management or advisory services when the information is released for the sole purpose of providing the products or services covered by the agreement;
  - In any circumstances with the customer's instruction or consent.
- c) Restricts access to confidential client information to individuals who are authorized to have access to confidential client information and need to know that information to provide services to clients.
- d) Maintains physical, electronic, and procedural security measures that comply with applicable state and federal regulations to safeguard confidential client information.
